

Abraham A. Williams Jr.

January 14, 1949 - October 13, 2024

When you think of Abraham, you can't help but tear up because he is gone too soon, smile because he said something to you, and then laugh out loud because of his humor.

Mr. Abraham A. Williams, Sr., was a loving and devoted husband, father, grand/great-grandfather, loving uncle, friend, and community organizer.

Born to Abraham Sr. and Annie Williams, he is one of six children raised in Phenix City, Alabama, to loving Christian parents devoted to their family, church, and community.

After graduating from Alabama A&M University, Abraham started his professional career in Phenix City at The Boys Club of America and Spencer Recreation Center. He was a dedicated leader, always striving to help the disenfranchised. His work in housing, which began in 1978, was particularly noteworthy. He was a visionary Director of Housing and a Community Leader, and after 17 years in Alabama, he was appointed Executive Director of Housing in Bowling Green.

The list of achievements Mr. Williams accomplished is endless because of the teamwork and community volunteers. To name his accomplishments without naming the people who walked alongside him was never the nature of Abraham. He constantly stated this was what "we did" in Bowling Green. Bowling Green Housing became the prototype in the United States, and nothing made him prouder than seeing the benefit it had for "his" children in housing and the community.

Abraham is one of the few people who has lived such a selfless life that God allowed him to see and hear a room full of people who appreciated him and gave him flowers and jokes while he lived. He was allowed to hear his own obituary in the presence of the people he loved. Even that night, he lived up to the words that best describe him: a tireless servant leader.

Abraham loved God and his family. He was active in his church and considered his community as his mission field. Many people are successful, but true success is having the same people walk alongside you at your beginning and your end. Without his loving wife, secretary, partner in business, mother to his children and grandchildren, and mother to so many, there would be no success story.

Abraham and Mildred's love for the community has been demonstrated from the boardroom to the ballfield to their kitchen table. Abraham was the patriarch of his family, and his children, siblings, nieces, and nephews considered him a personal joy and felt that he loved them more than anyone else.

Faithful to the end would describe this man of God, man of his community, and man of his word.

The word of God tells us, "Be faithful until death, and I will give you a crown of life."

Mr. Williams is survived by his wife of 53 years, Mildred Williams, and his children, Chandra Alfred (Greg), Daryl Williams, and Malcolm Williams.

Siblings: Geraldine Abercrombie, Teresa A. Brown, Pastor Noble D. Williams (Dorothy), Elder Wilma Pugh (John), and Pastor Veta Blanding (Pastor Gerard Blanding). Grandchildren: Tyeron, Nyana, Midori, Yehoshua, and Great Grandchildren: Tyren, Tylon, Tyaire. His nieces and nephews loved him like a father; he was a friend and a loving relative, and he loved his community.

“ When I was told of Mr. Abraham's passing, I yelled WHAT? I was shocked. I lived in Housing for several years. The times that I really needed something Mr. Williams always went to bat for me even though I had to listen to his jokes! He was a man that was highly respected and loved by all who knew him. He will indeed be greatly missed by his family, friends and our community which he did a great deal for. I want to thank him for housing, not connected with The Housing Authority, for my Sister Melinda and for being a great mentor to my Brother Mark in dealing with business issues. I also want to thank Mr. Williams for being an awesome Godlily man who knew the true meaning of being a Child of God. Rest in Peace Mr. Abraham. Job well done. With heartfelt sympathy, Mary L. “ Abraham was my softball coach whenever we went to the state championships back in the 80’s. He was always a great motivator and kept the team inspired. We were supposed to have a softball reunion last Saturday and unfortunately it was canceled and the next day he passed. I was looking forward to seeing him again but God had other plans for him. I thank God for allowing me to meet him and be apart of my life. Sending condolences and prayers to his family 🙏🙏🙏

“ It seems that I am without words, which is rare for me- as I'm sure Abraham would agree.

Since 1995 Abraham's larger than life presence in this community changed so many things for the better, for all of us who define ourselves as advocates/activists. He enriched the entire City/County of Bowling Green with his humor, pragmatic problem solving and his big heart. It is hard for me to imagine this community without him in it. I watched him wheel and deal, and tell stories better than any stand up comedian, all in the name of successfully helping individuals, organizations and especially kids!

Abraham loved his family and friends and bossing everyone around, the only one he couldn't get too bossy with was Mildred! I think he may have tried a few times- didn't work though.

Abraham's passing is a monumental loss for his family, for our community and his hometown of Phenix City, Alabama. My sincere sympathies and prayers go to Mildred, his children, grandchildren and extended family.

I'm confident that Abraham has already found some projects in Heaven to work on and I'm also sure he's already recruited helpers who he is now bossing around - GodSpeed old man - you will be missed.

“ Heartfelt condolences to Mildred, and the entire Williams Family! Words cannot express the void and hurt I and so many others feel knowing we won't hear Abraham's words of wisdom, motivation, humor and wit again! I thank God for our friendship and his mentorship over a lifetime! His was a purposeful life and I will remember and love him forever! Rest well my friend!

“ He brought the power of his presence, his humor, his compassion, his voice, his honesty, his love, and his position to some of the most vital humanitarian issues in this community. Mr. Abraham Williams took God’s words in Matthew 25:40 seriously !!! So tonight, I’m celebrating his legacy and not mourning him because he was one of the rare gems. God has a beautiful reward for him now! RIH

“ Dear Williams Family,

There are few things more difficult than dealing with the loss of a loved one. We, along with our staff, are honored and humbled that you have chosen our family to care for your family during this time. It is our hope that we have been able, in some small way, to lighten your burden and give proper reverence to a life lived. Please let us know if we can be of further service.

Respectfully,

*Carmen, Cedric, Claudia and Kelly
