

Annie L. Link

April 2, 1938 - October 18, 2024

Annie Louise Grainger Link was born April 2, 1938, in Woodburn, Kentucky, a daughter of the late Thelbert Grainger, Sr. and Annie Pearl Young. She was a 1956 graduate of High Street High School and member of the New Bethel Baptist Church where she was a member of the Missionary.

When Annie was young, she was employed by the Dime Store. Seeing there was more that she could do Annie then went to work for the Housing Authority of Bowling Green as an Inspector. As Annie visited the homes of many, she saw there was a need in the community. Her free hearted spirit was shown by giving away clothing from the trunk of her car, thus Annie's Place was founded. Upon much recognition for her hard work and dedication in 1997 Annie received the Jefferson Award. She was always attentive of others even after retiring from her job to care for her husband Hugh "Bug" Link, until his death in 2006. Call anytime of the day or night Annie was there to do whatever she could. Small in stature but a heart and soul of huge proportions. Annie enjoyed cooking, sewing, and taking care of others. Her nieces and nephews called her Aunt Pete. If she had a dime, she would give you a nickel.

To cherish the memory of Annie Louise Link she leaves her daughter, Margaret "Sissy" Link; brother, William (Dorothy) Grainger; in-laws, Josephine "Josie" Grainger, Doris Link and Frank Weatherspoon; several nieces, nephews, good neighbors and special friends Mr. & Mrs. Eugene Vaughn; other relatives and friends. Annie was preceded in death along with her husband and parents, by her siblings, Thelbert Grainger, Jr., Mattie Weatherspoon; uncle, Marvin Young, aunt, Hattie Thomas; nephews, Octavious "Fox" Grainger, and Barry Weatherspoon, niece, Robbie Grainger; and several in-laws.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam and Son

“ Dear Link Family,

There are few things more difficult than dealing with the loss of a loved one. We, along with our staff, are honored and humbled that you have chosen our family to care for your family during this time. It is our hope that we have been able, in some small way, to lighten your burden and give proper reverence to a life lived. Please let us know if we can be of further service.

Respectfully,
