“ *The loss of a love one is so hard to face,
you just want to hide,
go some where and escape!
But death is something,
we all must go through,
I know it's hard,
when it's someone you loved and knew.*

*Just know now,
she is in a better place,
no more hurt or pain shall she face.
It seems unfair and yes this is true, but she is in Heaven now watching over us all!*

*God has called her home to rest!!
And she's being well taken care of Because God knows best!

“ *God has gold and diamonds everywhere in His World, but we must dig them out. And, just like precious gems and metals when they are first pulled from the ground, the treasures of God's World need to be polished and refined in us in order to have the brilliance they are capable of revealing. “ *Life Is A Journey Birth is a beginning
and death a destination
And life is a journey:
From childhood to maturity
and youth to age;
From innocence to awareness and ignorance to knowing;
From foolishness to desecration
and then perhaps to wisdom.
From weakness to strength or from strength to weakness
and often back again;
From health to sickness
and we pray to health again.
From offense to forgiveness from loneliness to love
from joy to gratitude
from pain to compassion from grief to understanding from fear to faith.
From defeat to defeat to defeat
until looking backwards or ahead We see that victory lies not at some high point along the way but in having made the journey step by step
a sacred pilgrimage.
Birth is a beginning
and death a destination
And life is a journey;
A sacred journey to life everlasting

“ A poem In Memory of my Sister:
When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, Why cry for a soul set free. Miss me a little, but not for long, and not with your head bowed low. Remember the Love we all once shared, Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone; it's all a part of the Master's plan. A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds, Miss me, But let me Go.

Your Sister, Linda

“ Dear Bryant Family,

There are few things more difficult than dealing with the loss of a loved one. We, along with our staff, are honored and humbled that you have chosen our family to care for your family during this time. It is our hope that we have been able, in some small way, to lighten your burden and give proper reverence to a life lived. Please let us know if we can be of further service.

Respectfully,
