“ Rev. Taylor was my pastor at Santa Fee Baptist Church in the late '80s, and it was under his pastoral care that I started my Christian journey. I will never forget the August afternoon when he took me out in a creek to baptize me. He was a good preacher, sharp dresser, and a cheerful man, and I extend my condolences and prayers to his family.

Rest in peace, Pastor! May God reward you for your labors.

“ I am sooo saddened to hear this VERY shocking news!! My heart goes out to you at this time of grief. I am honored and blessed to have known Rev. Taylor, as he served as my Acting Pastor for a little while when I was a member of Little Zion Baptist Church. His sermons were always short, sweet, and to the point. Honestly, I can truly say that he was a blessing in my life and I will miss him. BURTON FAMILY: You all are like family to me, and when you hurt .. I hurt too!! Right now, I REALLY wish I could make your pain go away, but I can't: Only God can do that (Proverbs 3:5-6). Finally, I want you to know that I am here for you ALWAYS, praying MIGHTY for your beautiful family, and I love you all VERY MUCH!! <3

When I think of Rev. Taylor I have joy in my heart. I worked with him for several years at Cutler-Hammer and he always had you laughing at the stories he told. There was never a dull moment when you were around him. Go rest High on that Mountain, you've gained your crown.
