“ Dear Cullom Family,
I am sorry for your loss. May each of you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With deepest sympathy,###imported-begin##valerie thompson###imported-end##

“ We would like to extend sincere sympathy to the entire Cullom family. We appreciate the way we were always treated as part of the family. Pete loved all the Cullom kids as if they were his own and Patrick always felt the love from his older brothers and sisters. Rest in peace Bruce, you will be missed.##imported-begin##Heather and Patrick Maskin##imported-end##

“ Very sorry to read of the passing of your dear loved one Bruce. It seems that life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. I am writing to share a few words of comfort and encouragement from the source of truth the bible.

God holds out a wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCISES FAITH IN ME, EVEN THOUGH HE DIES, WILL COME TO LIFE."

There are nine accounts of ones who were resurrected in the bible. Those acts are a guarantee that the resurrection of others is possible. God can bring back the billions of dead he holds within his perfect memory. (John 5-28,29) What a blessed reason to hope in God!

We have been given the gift of our memories. Your memories of Bruce will bring you great joy. When a loved one becomes a memory that memory turns into a treasure.

May you and yours lean on Jehovah God for the strength you need at this sad time. (Psalms 83-18)

“ When I first heard of my cousin Bruce's passing I hoped that it wasn't true. I loved him very much, we grew-up doing the same crazy stuff and we always had fun. The last time I saw Bruce was at my father's funeral (JT Crabtree Bruce's uncle). As always it was good to see him and all the family even at that sad time. Bruce had a way of making you feel better and i will always love and miss him. As we loose more and more of our family and friends I can only wonder if our family will simply drift apart. With every loss there will always be an empty space that can never be filled. Again, I loved Bruce and will always will.

To all the family, I share your grief and and hope we will find a way to become close.

With all my love, Matthew W. Crabtree###imported-begin##Matthew W. Crabtree###imported-end##

“ From the day I was born Brucie was there to love and care for me. He was the best dad I could have ever asked for. He was super dad. Well at least in my book. There are so many memories I have of him but one of my fondest memory was of the snow bear he built with me and Angie in the front yard. When the kids knocked it down he fixed it so that it could never be knocked down again. It's kind of an inside joke. Although we were apart for years I have always carried his love with me. I am still and always will be his Stinker Stonker. I love you dad!###imported-begin##Nickiea
