Carrie Marie Beck was born October 3, 1944, in Bowling Green, Kentucky, to Miss Gennie Beck. Carrie was a life long resident of Bowling Green and received her education in the Bowling Green Public School System where she completed her high school education. Carrie committed her life to Christ at an early age under the Pastorship of Bishop William Link.

Carrie went to rest in the arms of the Lord at approximately 3:00 P.M. EST on, Tuesday, March 8, 2016, after a brief illness. She leaves to cherish her life her devoted son, Curtis Beck; three grandchildren, Olivia, Edward and Jaliyah all of Louisville, Kentucky; three sisters, Georgia Byrd-Graffenread, Indianapolis, Indiana to whom Carrie was parent and guardian until Georgia's marriage and Lisa and Crystal Beck, Bowling Green, Kentucky; a special niece, Wynette Beck and several other nieces and nephews.

“ She was my friend and the God Mother to my daughter, her namesake Carrie Marie. I will miss her and loved her greatly. She was my friend and pastor during a very dark period in my life. I was not in Bowling Green when she passed. I wish I could have just one more conversation with her about Jesus.
