“ In tribute to Charlie,

God blessed me to meet this guy named Charlie Cowherd in 1977 when I came to school at Western KY University. Awesome, Awesome person. Just a joy to be around. There are people God puts in your life and for me he was one of them.

Two things that jump out at me I learned from Charlie, always had a coupon for where you are going to eat and if you don't ask for a discount wherever you go, I am not joking on those, Charlie believed if you don't ask you will not receive. Another thing I learned was to write things down to remember because as he said "Brother got a bad mind, gotta write a note so I can remember!" Charlie had a 100 notes in his pocket it seemed always.

There are other things but those just jump at me. Yep, he was a very honest man in every way just a good man to know. I have never forgotten you nor will I ever forget what I learned from you.

To the family the I empathize with you more than you know. Charlie was our secret weapon on our great basketball under five-nine team that took on and beat all comers, size did not matter. We only told Bouncer he was to make sure he showed up sometimes because as Charlie would say "Brother was suspect in showing up", LOL. Charlie, you will be missed in the physical but you will never truly leave us. God's love and comfort to the family!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ Dear Cowherd Family,

There are few things more difficult than dealing with the loss of a loved one. We, along with our staff, are honored and humbled that you have chosen our family to care for your family during this time. It is our hope that we have been able, in some small way, to lighten your burden and give proper reverence to a life lived. Please let us know if we can be of further service.

Respectfully,

*To Mrs. Cowherd and daughters: Your Father's and Husband's Time Has Come To Go. Your father's and husband's time has come to go. Now that God beckoned him so. The door of life has opened wide, To let him through and pass inside. Before you shed a painful tear. Whisper in his waiting ear, "Farewell my darling husband and dad, Farewell for all the love we've had. (by Derek Dobson). I am truly sorry for your loss. May God keep you and the girls in His infinite wisdom.
