“ I don't even know what to say. I'm sorry for your loss just isn't enough. Jackie, I know you and Cody did not have nearly enough time together, but I believe that God brought you together for this short time to be an example. The two of you are an example of true love, beauty (inside and out), and grace. All of that was evident to everyone who met the two of you. I hope you and all of Cody's family find comfort knowing that Cody is in a better place with no illness and none of the burdens of this world. I know you will join him there when it is your time. Until then, I pray that you find peace and comfort.
