

Evans Johnson Jr

May 11, 1965 - January 15, 2023

Evans Eugene Johnson, Jr., was born to the late Mary and Evans Johnson, Sr., on May 11, 1965, in Bowling Green, Kentucky. God called him home, January 15, 2023.

Evans was a graduate of Bowling Green High School, but his education started at Parker Bennett Elementary School where he found his love for Special Olympics. Evans was previously employed by Chi Chi's, Auburn Hosiery Mill, Walmart and the Salvation Army.

Evans participated in Special Olympics every year for over forty years all the way leading up to his ending of life. He received many medals and was able to participate in Seattle Washington and North Carolina. Evans loved playing basketball, football, baseball and other various sports. Evans also loved watching WWE Wrestling, he never missed a show, and the Dallas Cowboys were his favorite football team.

Evans professed a hope in Christ at an early age uniting with New Bethel Missionary Baptist Church and later united with Next Level Church.

Evans loved his family and friends; he never met a stranger. He would do just about anything for whoever. Evans had a heart of gold. He will be truly missed by all who knew him. Evans will rest in power with his beloved family gone

Evans leaves to cherish his memories, sons, Aaron Bunton and Andrew Bunton; sisters, Frances (Michael) Franklin, Barbara Coleman and Robbie Shelton; brother, DeVron Anthony. Aunts, Mae Lizzie Brown and Terry Johnson. Nephews, Dante Johnson (Tyffanee), and Darrell Coleman (April); nieces, Shadonna Coleman and Porsha Franklin; a host of other great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam and Son

“ Evans. My brother from another mother. I was just at work with you roughly 6 months ago which was around the last time I saw and spoke with you. We roasted each other like normal each time we saw each other and laughed at it each time. That was just us. I can't believe you're gone man. I really can't. I appreciate everything you've done for me even if you felt like it was nothing. I love you bro. Had I known you were going to be with God less than a year later, I would have told you that. Tell my mom I said hi and I miss her very much. Rest in paradise brother. I'll see you later.
