“ I light this candle in celebration and remembrance of Mother Frances Edmonds. I was blessed and privileged to meet this beautiful woman of God at the homegoing service of my father, Henry L. Edmonds in 2003. Truly, as she and her sister (Mother Evalina) stood at his casket with me that day, I knew that I was a younger woman who was being granted the honor to be in the midst of "seasoned souls, and Titus 2 women" of the Lord. God allowed her live to such an amazing age in Him. Rest on now, Mother Frances...from your labor to reward.
