Never knew how I would handle not being able to hear your voice, or see your smile, or even not to have you present for my college graduation, or wedding... I am hurting so bad daddy... Family isn't the same, true colors are being shown, who would have known. I will use this as another outlet to talk to you and express my feelings of you being gone I LOVE YOU WITH ALL OF MY HEART! You like my tattoo? You didn't get to see it you left me the day I was going to show u! U just don't know how bad my heart feels with your absence! : (

My Prayers goes out to you and family during this time of sorrow.
Garnett, was one of my favorite cousin. I can remember all of the fun time we share at the old farm in Summer Shade and in Glasgow, KY. He had such a beautiful smile and those deep pretty dimples. I will never forget he will always be remembered. R.I.P.

“ My family will always remember Garnett as a calm, caring person who spoiled Gail, Robert and Erika and who always had something positive to say. I will remember how he spoke of accepting Christ back into his life; and that is the most precious memory of all. May God Bless the Family with Comfort, Grace and Mercy always.
