“ Many sweet and caring companions were contracted by one means or another to take care of my aging Grandmother Ellen Taylor Alexander of Jonesville so that she could remain in her home before she decided to go live with her son Thomas Loving Alexander in Indianapolis. Hattie Grainger was one of those companions. Each time I stopped by, delicious meals had always prepared in a timely manner, house scrubbed to perfection, and both sitting happily and contentedly smiling profusely as they conversed. I thank God and Hattie for those times. Rest peacefully, Hattie. Love you.
