

Hilda M. Sarver

June 15, 1935 - August 21, 2021

Hilda Marie Green was born on June 15, 1935, to the late parents of Houston and Beulah Green in Sugar Grove, KY. The family moved to Bowling Green, KY where she would live throughout her lifetime. She was always the smallest one on the block, but smarts enough to win your heart. Who would have believed that within this little bitty child, so much life would develop into a mountain of love.

Impressing people was not her goal. Her goal was to be remembered for being fair to everyone, treating everyone the way she wanted to be treated.

Words of wisdom:

"I love everybody and I want everybody to love me! I don't want anyone to do without and I want them to have the best!"

Loved serving her church, Hilda was an Usher, a Missionary, Choir member, Church Mother, and the Head person over the Church kitchen. Her tenure of at least 50 years as Church Clerk was under the leadership of Rev. Mitchell Lewis, Rev. Carter, Rev. Robert Brown, Rev. Fred Hill, Rev. Thomas Anthony, Rev. James Turner, and Rev. Timothy Stanley.

Dedication of time and the best foundation was in God's work inside and outside the Church. She saw the need for a community building to serve the residents during times family homes did not accommodate large family gatherings, deaths, and special occasions. She shared her idea with the Executive Director and was approved by the Board of Commissioners that Ms. Hilda's Hospitality House was born.

Annie's Place is a food & clothing bank in which she was the Director and renamed "Miss Annie's Place." Other community services include Foster Grandparent Program, Bowling Green Group Home Mentor. Woman of Achievement Award-(Lifetime Achievement Award), Jefferson Award-(Public Service), Daily Point of Light Award-( Honoring an Individual creating change in Communities), Ora F. Porter Community Service Award-(Community Outstanding Service), Prince & Cora Mack Humanitarian Award NAACP Bowling Green/Warren Co. Branch.

Predeceased in death by Son: Kenneth Donnell Morrow; Daughter: Darlene Rucker; Parents: Houston & Beulah Green; Siblings: Carolyn Withrow, Katherine Wilson, Winnie Herndon, Wilbur Smith, R T Green, Bobby J. Green, Sr. & Ebon Ray Green, Sr. A Special Companion: Ed Oldham

“ To the family and friends of Ms. Hilda, please accept my sincere condolences.

God puts special people in your life for a reason.

Ms. Hilda is one of my special people. But, not just mine, she has touched a lot of people's lives...

Ms. Hilda is an UNSUNG hero in my life! She helped and encouraged me to obtain my high school diploma while standing up to the injustice in the school system. Ms. Hilda stood up for me and other students to get justice. Not everyone can be as courageous as Ms. Hilda...

She even sought legal representation for me and other students to be rightfully placed back in high school.

I know something GOOD about you, Ms. Hilda; You are Kind, Loving, Outspoken, Smart, Persistent, Passionate, Open Minded, Trustworthy, Reliable, Confident, And You Ain't "Scurred!"

R.I.P. Ms. Hilda!

“ I'm sitting here thinking about how I'd always tell Mrs. Hilda how I loved her sweet potatoes and how she'd say " I believe you love my sweet potatoes more than me." We'd laugh and I'd give her a big hug while telling her " no mam!! " 😂😭🙏. Also, She knew not to put my sweet potatoes on a plate, but in a bowl because I loved sopping up the juice. 😭 Finally, If any sweet potatoes were left over after an event, She'd put it in a bowl to save and give to me. Yes, I'm really going to miss MY sweet Angel! I pray everyday that I can be at the least half the woman she was. ❤️
