“ Lived as his back door neighbor since 1992. He has been one of the BEST neighbors anyone could have ever asked for. He and his son, Brandon, have helped me out numerous times when I would get my mower hung up in places I was mowing and got myself stuck in places I shouldn't have had the mower. Their love and care for their dogs was unbelievable! They took excellent care of their animals as well. My sister, Linda was more acquainted with his wife. She said she is kind and sweet as well. J.T. will definitely be missed!!! Judy Corbin

“ I can not think of one time I spent with JT that I did not leave with my ribs hurting from laughing so much. I will always thing of JT as my "Bowling Green dad"... when I started a Lowe's I was a 19 year old "kid". He reminded me of my dad so much, it was like my dad was with me while I was off at college. God called home a great man,..whoever is next to him I know their ribs are hurting from laughing at his stories!

“ I was talking with a co-worker today about J.T. and how long we had worked with him; she said during her first few days here she would watch the crew work and was amazed at how seamlessly and flawlessly they worked together. That describes J.T. in a nutshell, seamless and flawless in his ability to work with all comers, both experienced and not so competent. But he never stopped and always laughed at himself first. We selfishly miss him.

“ It was my Honor to be his Supervisor. He was a Great Man of God and a Great Husband and Father as well as Grandfather. JT was a Great Employee but most of all a Great Friend. I have no doubt where he will spend eternity and I look forward to seeing him again someday. To his family I say draw near to God and he will help you through this tough time of loss. There is no doubt a Big party going on in heaven right now! Prayers for you all in the days ahead.
