“ Dear Cousin, sitting here remembering the times when I attended the University of Louisville for one semester, when you and Uncle Will would, on several occasions , pick me up from campus and take me to New Albany where Aunt Sallie would be waiting for me with the most deliciously prepared meals. I really missed that when I transferred to the University of Kentucky in Lexington. Even tho. I haven't seen you in a while, I will NEVER forget your keen sense of humor. R.I.P. Cousin!! I will see you again.

“ To the family of James R. Basham, I am very sorry for your loss. James was a very special person and will be missed very dearly. His advice on cooking, transplanting roses and most of all the smile he had for everyone. My dear friend, memories of our days of laughing, cooking and just our hours of talks will always be in my heart. Rest in God's Arms now my friend no more suffering will you have .

“ Dear Basham Family,
There are few things more difficult than dealing with the loss of a loved one. We, along with our staff, are honored and humbled that you have chosen our family to care for your family during this time. It is our hope that we have been able, in some small way, to lighten your burden and give proper reverence to a life lived. Please let us know if we can be of further service.

Respectfully,
