“ Joyce was a special person to my son Adriane and myself. Mrs. Willis being the God fearing woman walking with the Lord. I was struggling to pay my bills and make ends meet and she showed up at my house I dated her brother for a while anyway she showed up at my house and I picked up my son and took him school shopping and bought him everything he could possibly need for school for the whole year and I just wanted to acknowledge her and thank her for that everything she's done for us. She really didn't know me from the next she just seen that a child needed some essentials and God put it on her to heart help. Rest In Heaven Rev. Joyce Willis
