“ Rabbit was a friend of mine for many, many years. He and I were very competitive in sports and story telling. He usually won. When God put Rabbit on this earth he put a very special person among us that will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. -- Stan England

“ To the family of Lawrence (Rabbitt) Helm, you have my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Rabbitt and I were classmates at High Street High School, which was a great time in our young lives. Let your loving memories comfort you and in time, they will lessen your sorrow. May the Lord bless and keep you in His loving arms.
