“ To Maxine and her family. My deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. May the Lord continue to bless each of you. I know what it feels like to lose your mother and at the time it feels like the sorrow will never go away, but with God's blessings and leaning upon Him, the pain is replaced with all the great memories you shared with your mom. I will keep you in my prayer. God bless you.

You have our deepest sympathy and we share your grief in the loss of your mother. Just be comforted by the thought that she is with God now and it rests upon us to one day be with her. Do your best to make sure family and those you come in contact with have also accepted Jesus as their personal savior so that we can all be together in that great getting up morning. There is a song that JB recorded and that the brothers at our church sing. "When We All Get To Heaven". Wow, what a day of rejoicing that will be !!

It's okay to cry because that's God's way of allowing us to have a grieving period. But we cry and grieve with hope!

WE are praying with you. God bless you and your families.
