

Marshall N. Edmonds

November 18, 1938 - April 25, 2021

Marshall Neal Edmonds entered this life on November 18, 1938 and was received into the arms of his loving Savior on April 25, 2021. Marshall was a loving husband of 35 years, devoted father and committed servant to Zion Missionary Baptist church (Evansville, IN). He took pride in imparting his Christian faith and dedication to family to his grandchildren. Lastly, Marshall pledged 34 years of his life to federal service.

Marshall was formally educated in the Bowling Green public school system and graduated from State Street High School in 1954. He pursued advanced education at Central State University, Butler University and Western Kentucky University. For over 50 years, he was a member of Kappa Alpha Psi. Marshall was actively engaged in his church as a member of the Men's Choir, a Sunday School teacher, and a member of the Finance Committee. Most importantly, he was ordained as a Deacon in 2001. Marshall and Regina united in holy matrimony on July 2, 1985. Through this union, they prioritized love and acceptance that was a witness to many couples in the church, the community and in the family. In his last days, Marshall's ministry of reconciliation was demonstrated by all of his children surrounding him in love and support as one family. This was his final gift to us, a gift of restoration.

Marshall was preceded in death by his father, Ashur Jewell Edmonds, his mother, Addie Jane Edmonds, his eldest son, Steven Allen Edmonds, and his brother, John Buel Edmonds. He is survived in life by his loving wife, Regina Louise Edmonds, his children: Kevin Edmonds (Hazel) of Lexington KY; Lindsay Edmonds (Gloria) of Bowling Green, KY; Sherry Donaldson (Keith) of Boston, MA; Alicia Marks of South Bend, IN; and Andrea Holland of Nashville, TN. Also carrying his legacy are ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; additionally, he leaves in memory a cousin, Betty Pettiford of Yellow Springs, OH, and a special sister, Beverly Terry of Evansville, IN.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam and Son

“ Deacon Edmonds was a true Christian man. He and Mother always encouraged our family. His infectious smiles, hugs, and warm greetings will always be cherished. When I was taking caring of my uncle he was the only person who faithful asked about myself and my uncle every Sunday. He would ask me about my children and left a lasting impression on both. There will never be another "Deac", (as some of us lovingling called him) in this world. We are all the better and blessed because we have known him a man of God. He will be greatly missed. “ To The Family of Marshall N. Edmonds. As the youngest daughter (Yvonne) and on behalf of Henry L. and Elizabeth S. Edmonds, along with my dearest sisters, Theresa and Willetta (all now deceased), I would like to send my "deepest condolences and heart-filled sympathy" to your family...which is also a part of our "own family". May the Lord bless you, keep you, and "give you the strength" that you need; a "divine strength" that can only come from Him. And may "the God of all comfort" be with you in your time of reflection, bereavement, and celebration of the life of Marshall. I have many fond childhood memories when we visited with Mr. Marshall and Miss Betty (playing with Stevie); as well as visiting with Miss Addie Jane and John Burrell. Those wonderful memories will forever be "held close to my heart"; and may you rejoice in the years that God has granted you with your husband and father. He was really an awesome man, and will truly be missed.

“ Dear Edmonds Family,

There are few things more difficult than dealing with the loss of a loved one. We, along with our staff, are honored and humbled that you have chosen our family to care for your family during this time. It is our hope that we have been able, in some small way, to lighten your burden and give proper reverence to a life lived. Please let us know if we can be of further service.

Respectfully,
