“ I am say it was such a honor to know this man of God because he truly didnt mind working for the Lord. Now is resting and gone home to be with his wife and with the Lord.

To the campbell family: thank you for taking me and loving me as your own. In this time if you need me for anything anything at all please dont hesitate to call. Weeping may endure for a night but JOY comes in the morning.

Love you all,
