

Myrtle V. Huskey

November 14, 1939 - July 24, 2022

Mrs. Myrtle V. Huskey, was born, November 14, 1939, in Warren County, Kentucky, a daughter of the late Jordan “JC” Calvin Duncan and Daisey Scobey. Myrtle received her GED and was employed as a Nurse Aide, Ward clerk, Fruit of Loom and Teresa’s Restaurant. Myrtle was a member of the Powerhouse Ministries Church where she served faithfully and lovingly as Mother of the church. Myrtle enjoyed puzzle books (Sudoku), solitaire and court TV shows. On June 1, 1959, Myrtle married the late Willie E. Huskey, Jr.

Myrtle was a loving and compassionate mother; she wanted her children and family to know that she thanked God for letting them be a part of her life. That down through the years they have shared ups and downs that will help them to bond closer together. To her church she wanted to thank them for the support she needed when she felt there was no other earthly place to turn to. The love and strength they shared helped her to keep her faith in God’s growth.

On Sunday, July 24, 2022, while serving and giving God his praise Myrtle answered her Father’s call at the age of 82 years. She has joined those passed before her, parents, Husband; daughter, Charlotte Huskey Bibb; brothers Irvin Potter and James Calvin Guy; mother figure, Eula Myers.

To cherish the memory of Myrtle Huskey she leaves her children: Roger

(Sheila) Duncan, Willie C. Huskey, Jerome (Barbara) Huskey, Rev. Ford (Shawna) Huskey, Andrea Carpenter, Mike (Denise) Carpenter, and Barbara Jean Young; several grandchildren and great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Special sister Sandra Satterfield

“ No matter how old we get, WE still need our mothers; But, even though Mother Huskey has passed to the other side, I truly believe that she will continue to watch over you all from Heaven. She was a VERY strong, courageous, and beautiful lady, of whom I ALWAYS looked up to alot! Everytime I saw her, She would always tell me that my brothers and I were related to her/you all "on the Bryant side." Yes, Mother Huskey will be GREATLY missed!! She lived her entire life FAITHFULLY knowing that she could never grow closer to God just by living life for herself, but by ALWAYS sharing her love for God with others and trusting in his Holy Word. You see, Her example inspired not only me, but many many others. Please accept my love, prayers, and deepest condolences. I am here if you need me.
