

Patricia "Pat" Ann Stockton

October 2, 1952 - August 30, 2014

We celebrate the life of Ms. Patricia Ann Stockton also affectionately known as "Pat." Proverbs 31: 10-31 reminds us of Pat as it describes a woman who is a provider, with strong character, great wisdom and compassion. Family, friends, and colleagues alike can attest she exuded all of these traits.

Patricia Ann Stockton was born to the late Florene Jones and Willie Marshall Stockton on October 02, 1952 in Knob Lick, KY. She entered into eternal rest on August 30, 2014 in her home in Nashville, TN with family by her side.

Pat joined Ebenezer Baptist Church at an early age. She relocated to Bowling Green, KY where many important life events took place. She earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees at Western Kentucky University, married Phillip Cooke, Sr. for 23 years, and gave birth to her only son, Phillip Cooke, Jr. Her teaching career began at L.C. Curry Elementary School in Bowling Green, KY for 23 years. She relocated to Nashville, TN in 1999, teaching English before transitioning to J.F. Kennedy Middle School teaching 6th grade Reading, Language Arts, and Science for 15 years. She completed her Education Specialist degree at Tennessee State University next advancing into the doctorate program.

Pat was a member of Beta Rho Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and a charter member of Omicron Sigma Omega Chapter. It is obvious why she chose this sorority; each soror must make it a personal goal to foster sisterly relations by "nurturing the ivy." To nurture means to give care and attention to someone and to supply them with nourishment to further their development – this for sure is Pat’s legacy on earth.

Pat was an avid reader who could read an entire book in a day or two. She loved to write, given any chance, and recorded life in her most prized possessions, her journals. Pat’s passions in life were embracing family and teaching to make a difference. Pat’s strong will to live, determination, and optimism came from her faith in God, His Word, and prayer which became the driving forces right down to her last breath. With the care and presence of family and caregivers, she continued to amaze all with her strong will to live. Pat’s life will continue to live on through her surviving son: Phillip Allen Cooke, Jr. of Nashville, TN. Pat is survived by her loving sister, Rosie Hardy of Dallas, TX; & two loving brothers, Edward Stockton (Janis) of Vine Grove, KY and H. T. Stockton (Janice) of Chicago, IL. She is also survived by her step-father, Paul E. Shobe of Oakland KY; three step-siblings: Louie Shobe of Atlanta, GA, Paul Shobe, Jr. of Bowling Green, KY and Donnie Shobe of Oakland, KY; two Aunts: Gladys Tobin (Dale) of Louisville, KY and Mary L. Hibbitt of Evanston, IL; and lastly by, treasured nieces: Khalilah Hardy, Natalie and Kim Stockton, and nephews: Dewayne, Joseph, and Tyrone Stockton, and Thomas Hardy, Jr. along with countless other family and friends whom she adored.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam & Son

“ God's Garden

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your beautiful face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
It broke my heart to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of me went with you
The day God called you home.*

“ To the Stockton Family:

Ms. Stockton was one of the best teachers to work with here at JFK Middle School! I've had that honor for only the last three years, and saddened that our time with her is at an end. She had such a lively personality, and no matter how she felt, her outlook was always positive and sharp! I've missed her since the beginning of the school year, but glad that she is finally at peace! My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time, and thank you for letting me share.

We are glad she is finally at peace as well. I am her niece and agree with you whole-heartedly she was: lively, positive, and sharp! Her sense of humor was similar to my own so we laughed all the time. We had so many similarities. If I was her co-worker I would surely miss her too. :) Thank you, Khalilah Hardy “ Patricia had beautiful eyes and her smile lite up a room. I will miss my friend and all the laughs we had, even during the stormy days. I promised to walk with her during those difficult times and I did. Patricia was a fighter to the end because of her zest for life and her love for the students she taught. I feel blessed to have known her, and because of her relationship wth the Lord, I know she's in glory. Rest in peace my friend. Love always.

Those eyes were a blessing and a curse for myself, her niece, and her son, Phillip Jr. When she would reprimand us they seemed to get real scary looking but when were not causing her grief (in our younger years) they were the most beautiful brown & so pleasant. Days before her passing the whites of her eyes were so clear and those eys so bright. This is one of thing features I will miss so dearly. Jennifer, I can NEVER thank you enough for your selflessness and support you showed my dear Aunt. I could rest easy knowing she was in your hands. You feel blessed to know her and I think the family feels blessed to have you and your sister, Mona, as our extended family. We love you and can never express how grateful we are that you all took care of Aunt Pat. Love you, Khalilah Hardy “ Pat was my closest, most trusted friend. She was literally the closest thing I have to a sister. She embodied a goodness and integrity that we shall not see again. While Pat was never on Facebook, I would often speak of her when we were speaking of once in a lifetime friends. Just as we always closed, love you Sis.

Dixie, we know just how much Aunt Pat adored you and how much you adored her right back. Social networking (FB, Twitter, Instagram) was not something she exposed herself too enough, but had she tried it out I know she would have enjoyed it. If you saw her cell phone you would know that we teased her so much about that archaic object & she would give us a piece of her mind right back. I loved my Aunt's quick wit, intelligence, class, integrity, and sense of humor. She is down right irreplaceable.

Love ya, DIXIE!
