

Rachel E. Cullom-Moore

April 16, 1953 - May 10, 2026

Rachel Emmarea Cullom Moore, was born in Bowling Green, Kentucky, April 19, 1953, a daughter of the late, Bruce Eugene Cullom and Flora Mahone Cullom. She was a graduate of Bowling Green High School and a member of New Bethel Baptist Church. Rachel also worshipped with New Sunlight in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where she was received with welcomed arms.

Rachel was a dedicated former employee of Louisiana Women's Healthcare, and Fruit of the Loom. Her favorite color was orange, a vibrant shade that reflected her joyful spirit. Rachel had a special pleasure in cooking—her famous meatloaf was loved by all—and she found joy in sewing and sharing heartfelt conversations with friends. Above all, Rachel was a gentle, nurturing mother to her cherished daughter, Cree. The values she treasured were lovingly passed on to her daughter and other family members and to everyone who knew her.

At the break of day on Sunday, May 10, 2026, with loved ones by her side, Rachel peacefully joined those preceding her in death along with her parents, brothers, Bruce Cullom, John Cullom, William Cullom, and Keith Cullom in eternal rest.

Rachel's memories will forever be held dear by her loving and devoted daughter, Lachresha "Cree" (Orlando) DeMoss; her adored grandchildren, Anthony Dilligard (Elnaz Shahmoradi) and Taiylar DeMoss; her caring sisters, Peggy Ralston, Brenda Dunn and Janie Burton; a host of cherished nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Her legacy of warmth and kindness will always be remembered.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam and Son Mortuary, Inc.
