

Renell D. Clark

January 27, 1984 - November 28, 2018

Mr. Renell Da'Mond Clark.

Was better known as “Shorty” by his family and friends, was born on January 27, 1984, to Mae Clark and Samuel Thompson in St. Louis, Missouri. Renell attended St. Louis Metropolitan schools and then moved to Bowling Green, Kentucky in December of 1994. Renell was previously employed by Hammerstone Bar & Grill, Wendy’s, Labor Ready and a slew of other odds and end jobs, but his trade was in electronics.

Renell was preceded in death by his father, Samuel Thompson; brother, Samuel II; grandmothers, Elizabeth Walker and Willie Thompson; grandfather, Robert Thompson; uncle, James Walker.

Shorty was a loving and caring man that had the heart of a giant. Everyone he met, he made his friend. He was very much a Momma’s Boy. Shorty loved his mom. He enjoyed and loved anything purple, music, cars, dogs and special friend Ellen Crawford. Shorty taught all of us how to be happy with his unconditional love.

Renell loved all kids, especially his 3, Patricia Tetterson, Kawantarian Taylor, and Maeonja Taylor. He loved building their toys and riding them too. Shorty was a big kid at heart.

Along with Shorty's kids and mother he is survived by his brothers, Damone Thompson and Samuel Thompson, Jr.; grandfather, A.B. Walker; aunt, Minnie Walker; uncles, Henry Clark, Albert Walker, and Jake Thompson; brother/cousin, Shaahid Johnson; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Renell will be greatly missed.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam and Son

“ This is hard. The best memory we ever had with shorty was all of them. He grew up with my kids taught my oldest to box. He was always there. I remember Him dancing in the middle of stubbing street to the tootsies roll song. That's how he got his Nickey name from my kids. He was just at are house last week talking to my husband about buying a 73 olds cutlass my husband has. The first time I meet him was on stubbins street wasn't much older then my niece and my oldest son, but they all loved him so much we all did and still do. We all are so lost its like a bad nightmare I was hoping to wake up this morning and It not be true. I just wanted to share a few things. To his mom and his family and all that knew him we send are love and prayers. R. I. P Renell (shorty) my tootsies roll man. Love you always in my heart and soul

“ Dear Clark Family,

There are few things more difficult than dealing with the loss of a loved one. We, along with our staff, are honored and humbled that you have chosen our family to care for your family during this time. It is our hope that we have been able, in some small way, to lighten your burden and give proper reverence to a life lived. Please let us know if we can be of further service.

Respectfully,

*Carmen, Cedric, Claudia and Kelly
