

Robert L. "Rob" Rhodes Jr

January 5, 1974 - June 9, 2018

Robert Lee Rhodes, Jr., was born, January 5, 1974, in Selma, Alabama, a son to Robert L. Rhodes, Sr. and Geraldine Bonner Rhodes who survive. Robert was a graduate of Franklin Simpson High School class of 1992, and a U.S. Army Veteran. Robert returned to Bowling Green and worked in his hearts passion as an Auto mechanic for 28 years with R & B Automotive "Epleys". Robert's talent went on to serve many in neighboring counties, as well as Bowling Green and Franklin. Robert was well known and would do anything and could do anything if it involved tools, his hands and music. Robert touched sooooo many lives from that spot off Russellville Road and with that very contagious laugh and smile along with his very deep and vast knowledge made him a mark in the community that kept him going right up until he could not work anymore. Robert's mind never stopped working, his heart never stopped caring and loving. Robert has made so many memories that will last a lifetime for all of us; his family local and out of state, his friends, his mom and dad, his sisters, his children, his cousins and other very close and dear friends that were his brothers in heart. Rob's favorite TV shows were centered around cooking. He enjoyed just being with his family, cooking a lavish meal, listening to music, working on an engine or fishing were so important to Robert. On Saturday, June 9, 2018, Robert fell asleep in peace and rest at a very gentle (sadly not unusual today) age of 44. Along with his parents Robert Sr. and Geraldine, Robert leaves behind to cherish the many memories of his presence, unforgettable laugh and smile , as well as good ole hugs, his children: T'lisha Miller, Patrick Austin Baker, Aujia Lei Miller, Sekai Eugene Rhodes and Tristian Thomas Lynn McCormick; sisters: Stacey Burton Parker, Crystal (Wesley) Dallas and Mistie Lynn Rhodes; 6 nieces and nephews: Troy Shadowens, Jr., Wynter Trinette Parker, Autumn La'Sha Shadowens, Christian Dallas, Lyric Nicole Rhodes, Wyatt Darius Parker, cousin Alex Rhodes who was like a brother: and those who are family in heart: Golden Bowman, Telley Dozier, Mario Parker and (Burger) Cedric Whitney; several aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
