

Ruby D. Baker

April 16, 1923 - August 27, 2021

Ruby Doris Baker...was born April 16, 1923, in Gallatin, Tennessee, a daughter of the late Allen Robertson and Alice Robertson. Ruby was a member of Taylor Chapel A.M. E. Church where she was an Usher for many years. She was a former employee of Brenna Tobacco and later in life a Domestic Worker.

Ruby loved to watch TV, she enjoyed the Religious channels listening to God's word through messages and songs, Political Shows so that she could keep up with what was happening in the world, and one of her all-time favorite shows Charlie Brown.

Ruby was married to the late John Baker, sharing many memories with family and friends. As the last of seven children, along with joining her husband and parents, Ruby at the blessed age of 98 years has also joined her siblings, Sadie, Betty Mae, Sarah, Emma, Janie, and John.

To cherish the memory of Ruby Doris Baker she leaves a devoted and loving special niece and caregiver, Katie Mosley; special nephew Terry Wynn; a host of nieces, nephews; great-nieces and nephews; friend Loretta Milton; and other relatives and friends.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam & Son
