Romans 5:1-5

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. 3 Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5 And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us.

“ Dear Mrs. Zelma and Family,

My words are not adequate enough to express the sorrow I feel for our loss, I am too deeply sadden. Stephanie and I were like sisters, we were best friends in High School and we were next door neighbors for years, living on Conrad Court. Stephanie shared her family with me whom she dearly loved; her grandparents, sisters, brothers, aunts,uncles (especially Ricky,Kat and Letha) and her cousins. Stephanie 's cousin Terra would visit us during the summer from Chicago, she would teach Stephanie and me dance moves out of Chicago (the "Chicago drop"). We would practice the dance moves for hours, so that we could do them perfectly at "house parties". Neither one of us had much dance rhythm, which would frustrate the heck out of Terra, but we danced those moves at parties anyhow.

Stephanie and I would go shopping together and we would buy identical outfits on purpose, some of our mutual friends called us the "bobsy twins". For a long time, Stephanie and I would not "EVEN" wear dresses, they were to girly, girly for us. When my sister Sue was planning her wedding, she requested that Stephanie and me wear a dress at her wedding, we refused. We wore to Sue's wedding, almost identical blue and white sailor pant suits. Sue was not pleased about it, but Stepahnne and I were too happy and "sharp as a tack", we were doing our own"thang".

Stephanie, Marsha and Tawanda Harpool, Florence Withrow and I were members and later became employees of the "Girls' Club" Association, located on Adams Street in Bowling Green. We could all meet everyday after school and on Saturday mornings, to walk to the "Girls Club", talking about boys... The "Girls Club" Association paid us $26.50 per week, which we spent most of it at the Adam's Street Market corner store, buying ham sandwiches, chips, cookies, soda pops and jaw breakers candy.

We were role models to many of the young girls in our community, who also attended the "Girls Club". Our job duties at the Girls Club were to teach the young "Girls Club" members how to bake/cook, sew, table setting/dress etiquette, personal hygiene/grooming, game activities, we assisted the girls with their homework/tutoring some of them and of course, we told them allll about boys, since we knew so little...

Mrs. Zelma, remember the time when Stephanie and I shaved allll the hair off our heads, in support of the song writer, Isaac Hayes. You and Mama were furioius. Isaac Hayes, wrote the song "I Stand Accuse of Loving You." Stephanie and I shaved our heads also to show her boyfriend Howdy Fant and my boyfreind Fred Taylor that we stand accuse of loving them, looking back, how silly was that...

Stephanie and I were always competing to make each other proud. Stepahnie's father gave her private driving lesson. Stephanie soon surprised me by getting her driver's license so early aged. Stephanie was an inspiration to everyone around her. She also graduated from High School ahead of her class and then went on to attend Western Kentucky University, where she joined a Sorority of her choice and made many friends while there.

Stephanie was so beautiful...Mrs.Zelma, Stephanie always gave you the credit for her beauty.

Stephanie and I eventually lost contact over the years, after I moved to Washington, DC.

Stephanie married the love of her life, Howdy Fant (which I introduced them) I admired her for having a family...I would see/visit with her during my visits home to Kentucky, we would have long chats and laughs about our younger years and our adult life stories.

I am so blessed and lucky to have known Stephanie and her beauty. I will keep her spirit alive with many memories to hold close to my heart. Mrs. Zelma, I will keep you, your children, grandchildren and the entire family in my prayers. I pray that God keeps you in his comforting hands and keep you all in Perfect Peace.

May Stephanie R.I.P.
