

Tamala L. Johnson

February 16, 1982 - February 16, 2021

Tamala LaToya Johnson...was born February 16, 1982, in Jackson, Mississippi a daughter of the late Willie Johnson, Sr. and Doris Almore Johnson. At an early age, she was baptized at Community Baptist Church in Yazoo, Mississippi. Tamala was a graduate of Thomas Christian Academy and earned an Associate Degree.

Tamala was employed with Kelly Services and Omni Employment Service as a Computer Tech, Customer Service Rep, and doing Taxes in Nashville, Tennessee, and Louisville, Kentucky. To know Tamala was to know her warm smile, beautiful personality, and laughter that will be greatly missed. She was an avid reader who loved Shakespeare and all other types of books, she was a history buff, she loved all genres of music and would always say she was well rounded in music. Her favorite color was purple and she loved to cook. Desserts were her specialty and there was always a request for her cinnamon rolls.

On the day she would celebrate 39 years she started a new life as she joined her father in her new home.

To cherish the loving memory of Tamala L. Johnson, she leaves her mother Doris (Porter) Watson; brother, Willie (Grace) Johnson, Jr; sisters, Kandralla Johnson and Tawanda Johnson; uncles and aunts, Brooks Almore, Sr., Adam Almore, Clara VanBuren, Rachel Almore, Albert (Carol) Almore, Ruth Almore, Cleveland Smith, William Smith, Ralph Johnson, Kenneth Johnson, and Barbara Johnson; nephew, Kaiden Whitaker; niece, Jaibrien Young; and a host of friends.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam and Son
