“ A great man of God has been called home to his reward and I rejoice in knowing that Rev. Hill is at peace and reunited with Mrs. Hill. My heart breaks for the family and I grieve at the loss of my friend. He always called me his buddy and I'll never forget his laugh and all the good times we shared. I am thankful for his leadership at Siberia Baptist Church and that God saw fit to send him our way. He was truly a blessing to me and my family and we will all miss him terribly. I look forward to seeing him again in Heaven where we will laugh together once again. I pray that God's love gives you strength and fond memories of Rev. Hill bring you comfort and peace.

“ To the family of Rev Thomas Hill (Jimbo). Words cannot express my sincere, deepest sympathy for your loss. I am remiss in not realizing that Jimbo's real name is Thomas, however, because I knew him as Jimbo since childhood, I have to say that I am so sadden by his passing but Heaven truly has a gain. Margaret, I want to say that you have been such a blessing to the family and I know you will miss him dearly. I can remember the good ole days when Jimbo was a huge part of our success in our business "Butts Cleaning Service". My dad loved his children so much especially Deanna (as he would call her Dino) I remember that distinctively. I have you all in my prayers. I know that it will be hard but a know that God will comfort and strengthen each of you always. Margaret & children: Deanna, Shawn & Tommy, hang in there and peace to you all. Love you all. The Members, & Pastor

*Extend Our Condolences,
The Lord, Is My Shepard, I look to the hills from whence all my help comes from who I will continue to trust and with his help I can re-gain all comfort, strength, and my everlasting peace and hope.*

We were all sadden to hear of Rev. Thomas ,...aka..Jim Bo' Hills passing but then we give all praises to Our Lord & Savior, We known all trails, & tribulations have come to a final end. Now he is resting from his labor. No more sickness in his body, no more aches and pains,..no more storms to rage in his life. Now just peace and everlasting Joy'. We want the family to know were hear for you to have an shoulder to lean on.

When days are long, and there may be times that the nights get dark and dim, late in the mid-night hour there's no one around that can help with the pain and sorrow you feel .Just remember.there's a shoulder that you can lean and depend on both day and night,, God will always be there for each and everyone of you. May each of you know that our continued prayers are with you.

Humbly Submitted
