

Trelvie J. Parrish

October 27, 1946 - April 19, 2023

Trelvie Jean Parrish, was born, October 27, 1946, in Park City, Barren County, Kentucky. She was a daughter of the late Comer Parrish and Helen Mae Wood Parrish. Trelvie was a member of the Zion Hill Baptist Church, Park City, and was formerly employed in Housekeeping for several years at various motels.

Trelvie was an excellent caregiver tending to the needs of others. She loved to cook, and she took pride in making sure the house was neat and clean.

Trelvie enjoyed listening to music, dancing and being with her family. Even though she birth no children the love and care she showed her nieces and nephews were like that of a mother. Her laughter, her smile, her sense of humor was all a part of why she was loved so much by her family and friends. A true best friend to her sister Katie, with a bond that will forever hold strong.

Before the break of day, Wednesday, April 19, 2023, Trelvie, after years of battling health issues found peace for her soul as she joined her parents, Comer and Helen Parrish; her brothers, Roger Parrish, and Stanley Parrish; sister, Margaret Massey.

To cherish the loving memory of Trelvie Jean Parrish she leaves her sister and best friend, Katie Parrish; sister in-law, Minister Uretha Parrish; several nieces and nephews; devoted caregivers; Monica Halcomb and Lakrissa Halcomb, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Sincerely,

-Your friends at Burnam and Son
