It still seems like yesterday when I was sitting on your hospital bed, beside you, trying to spoon feed you water because you were making a sound like you were choking, but you were actually taking your last breaths. 🥹. “ Wow Aunt Ulala, can't believe the one year anniversary of your death is quickly approaching: It seems like yesterday when it happened. I think about you often; just can't believe that that morning at the hospital and you started making that sound . I thought you were choking off the food Uncle Richard was feeding you, and that's why I sat on the bed beside you trying to spoon feed you water. Wow , that memory will forever be in my heart. It was like Portia,who waited for me to come to BG and pick her up, and take her home with me to Glasgow to die, and then you waited for me to come to the hospital that morning. After you stopped making that sound, I ran out of the room to the nurse's station, and I will NEVER forget the nurse saying " Its real close!" when Uncle Richard asked her if you were gone. I love you and will NEVER forget all you done for me. Yes, I did keep my promise to you by speaking at your funeral. I told about only a few things you did for me, I just ddn't have enough time to tell it all. Thanks for always giving Mama your credit card so she could take me to the mall and buy me school clothes, and for giving me the money I needed to pay dues for when I had Speech, FBLA , DECA, and Student Council conferences. I wish I had told you thank you more. You were ALWAYS there for me when I needed your expert help on providing care for Portia. It was you who showed me how to change her feeding tube: I Never had to wait for hours at the hospital for them to change it ever again. I love love and miss you soooooooooo much. I am so looking forward to seeing you again. R.I.P. until then

“ Dear Cross Family,

There are few things more difficult than dealing with the loss of a loved one. We, along with our staff, are honored and humbled that you have chosen our family to care for your family during this time. It is our hope that we have been able, in some small way, to lighten your burden and give proper reverence to a life lived. Please let us know if we can be of further service.
