

Mr. William Henry Day

February 11, 1923 - December 21, 2010

Mr. William Henry Day, age 87 of Smiths Grove, Kentucky passed away on Tuesday, December 21, 2010 at the Medical Center of Bowling Green with his family at his side.

A kind and humorous spirit are the words that come to mind when describing William. He was born the only child of Otha and Janie Day in Smith's Grove, Kentucky on February 11, 1923. He was reared on the farm and worked as a farmer for most of his life. William loved his parents and his surroundings in the country. He was well known throughout the community and considered his neighbors as "family." William was known for his good natured ribbing and always being one to keep you up to date on the "happenings." William loved his relatives and made sure that you knew that you were "kin."

While growing up he and his family attended the Stoney Point Baptist Church. After staying in Smith's Grove until his health no longer allowed he then relocated to Bowling Green and stayed with Mabel and Adrian Christian until he made the transition to the Fern Terrace facility. After his transition, in addition to his family many of the residents enjoyed "Mr. Day." On many occasion the Brotherhood of Stoney Point, Ricky Boards, Amos Boards and Strode visited to chat and bring him some of his "favorite things."

A common request from William when asking his son Mike or his cousin's Mabel, Adrian, Mamie and her children were for chewing tobacco and sweets, namely cookies. He will long be missed and his memory cherished.

He is survived by his son: Michael (Angela) Pillow, Bowling Green, KY; five grandchildren: Briana Pillow of Bowling Green, Ky, James Crowe of Kewanee, IL, Marquise Martin of Kewanee, IL and John Martin of Bowling Green, KY and Markus Martin of Tompkinsville, KY; two great-grandchildren: Javaris Crowe of Kewanee, IL and Keenan Crowe of Bowling Green, KY; relatives and friends: Roundtree and Day families; Adrian and Mabel Day Christian and family; Mamie Fant Starks and family; Anna Roundtree Bland and family; Frances Day Meadows; Boards and Martin families.
