“ The passing of my beloved Uncle Zack signals my last living connection to my father's original family. Every summer vacation when we visited Bowling Green, we either stayed with my grandparents or Uncle Zack and Aunt Virginia. He was a testimony of strength, faith and family. His dry wit, his stern but gentle decorum, his dignity and grace in all matters is a reflection of my grandparents, and Uncle Zack's determination to be a authentic and Godly. His model of faith was always a reminder that one can live with unspeakable pain but still have the love of God in one's heart. Uncle Zack and I always exchanged birthday cards and we talked openly about life. We shall eternally miss him.
